

HEADQUARTERS
6970TH SUPPORT GROUP
UNITED STATES AIR FORCE
FORT GEORGE G. MEADE, MARYLAND

Office of the Commander

9 April 1959

Director of Training
Central Intelligence Agency
ATTN: [REDACTED]
2430 "E" Street
Washington, D.C.

STATINTL
STATINTL

[REDACTED]

In reference to telephonic conversation between you and Captain John F. Farnham of this organization on Tuesday, April 7th, 1959, please convey to [REDACTED] of your Agency my sincere pleasure regarding his acceptance to address the officers of this Group on Wednesday, April 22d, 1959. STATINTL

As Captain Farnham may have informed you, we offer to the Air Force officers attached to the 6970th Support Group a monthly program devoted to the presentation and discussion of subjects of professional interest. I have been informed that [REDACTED] lecture concerning the organizational and subversive tactics of Communism will be a definite interest and value to our officers. STATINTL

Our program takes place in the auditorium of the National Security Agency, Fort George G. Meade, Maryland, and is scheduled to begin at 1:00 p.m. [REDACTED] can be assured that he will find the auditorium well equipped and possessing excellent facilities. STATINTL

Speaking for the officers of this Group, as well as in my own behalf, please convey to [REDACTED] our appreciation for his forthcoming visit and my personal assurance that he will find here an eager and attentive audience. STATINTL

Sincerely,

Kenneth W. Holbert
KENNETH W. HOLBERT
Colonel, U.S. Air Force
Commander

Document No. [REDACTED]
Review of this document by CIA has determined that

☒ CIA has no objection to declass

☐ It contains information of CIA interest that must remain

classified at TS S C

Authority: [REDACTED]

☐ It contains nothing

Date 2-7-81 Revi [REDACTED]

STATINTL